

TUITION-FREE MONTESSORI CLASSROOMS

Detroit Public Montessori

New public, tuition-free Montessori classrooms in Detroit are now open and accepting students.

The Detroit Montessori pathway will make Montessori's time-tested, state recognized instructional approach accessible to more families in Detroit, and provide a rigorous, child-centered program. This program creates new educational options for Detroit parents who want an alternative learning environment that facilitates opportunities for students to explore, build, negotiate, and create. It also brings Montessori's rich tradition of raising student success to Detroit families, without tuition fees.
